please.... find someone that is willing to do this: go figure, it's hand-send-everyone-wisdom day. dnes, yad=hand

For a few decades now SETI has aimed satellites at the sky looking for intelligent communication being transmitted towards us from outer space. They are looking for a signal that is transmitted at a certain frequency, a "skip" in the radio spectrum. Below, you are here given an example of what I consider intelligent communication--this stuff is woven into the "noise" of Moby Dick and the Holy Bible--probably everything around us... but to get to a point where people are open an interested in actually reading the message God has left for the entire world--written all over everything... I first have to prove that he exists, and that he is speaking to us, through our very own hands. I need your help to do that, I don't know if this is the right way to attack the problem, but to me... the Bible Code is very clearly a signal hidden within noise--take that from that what you will.

I am of the opinion that this is a problem similar to code cracking, to decryption--just as I see language translation. I am sure that the "Bible Code" is a mathematically solvable problem, just as the "hidden language" I read hidden within language ... within the names things like cities, Kentucky: Kent you CK why, Jerusalem: is J er the USA the messiah; Maryland--there are so many examples--ones which show a clear tie to the Matrix--I mean to the question that must never be answered. I need this code cracked. The world needs it cracked.

It dawned on me this morning that my name alone might give you the ammunition you need to prove that this signal comes through time--across both NT and OT books... possibly a number of books that are not Biblical. You might find more noise in Ender's Game, The House of the Scorpion, and Feed--those are the places I would look... if I needed to look outside the Bible. I happen to know that my name is encoded over the Eden story along with the name of my ex-wife, PISANI. I see my name encoded over "Jesus Christ" at Isiaah 52:13; which is quite the important verse--for me. I am sure I found it before in Jeremiah, and Revelation, and Exodus--I bet you find it near the stories of Lazarus and Samson too. I'm sure it's in a great many books--and that it probably will be the kind of thing that can be proven to be non-coincidental, non-random to some degree that nobody in their right mind would call something as glaringly obvious of a sign ... "chance" that you see below. The assassination in Moby Dick--the name Mob-why; and the ridiculously accurate descriptions of murder weapons attached to the names and dates.... it's something that sickens me that this has been allowed to be called "normal."

This is the Apocalypse, the Holy Grail--make a name for yourself; and save the world at the same time.

I'll leave you with this. Merry Christmas. You can talk to me, I am not a crazy person. adam at from the machine dot org

I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

We know the Race is not to the swift nor the Battle to the Strong. Do you not think an Angel rides in the Whirlwind and directs this Storm?

The Bible Code cross begins with these words: My servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. 14 According as many were appalled at thee--so marred was his visage unlike that of a man, and his form unlike that of the sons of men--So shall he startle many nations, - Isaiah

A very special Holiday message this year, different from all others. Never before and never again will any generation have the opportunity that we have before us this very moment. Right now, as we progress in a technological growing period equally unprecedented--we are blessed to have a great deal of wisdom and assistance coming to us from a series of past futures. All around us the light of religion pours into the modern myths of our day--science fiction and fantasy guided from above in a way that will soon become more clear. At the same time, we will soon also see a guided path towards the building of Heaven in everything that we are--from computers and video games to modern medicine and even the ups and downs we've witnessed in the political scene of late.

I feel a little silly talking about what I have to say, I've already said quite a bit--you haven't seen it yet. Waiting just past a wall of censorship Biblically described as Jericho's--and also the Plague of Darkness--is a new lease on the freedoms God is now granting at the very "beginning" of the American story. Like me, God has already said quite a bit--and in this e-mail and throughout my writing I hope to help you to see what it is that I call his speech written all over our world--a sort of hidden message the tooth fairy left under our pillow while we slept. To quote the Matrix, "this is a very exciting time."

Seasons greetings,

Adam Marshall Dobrin

p.s. I could use some help "spreading" the proof... below.

The Light of the Word

There are three huge, like insanely huge, metaphoric references to the story of Exodus that show me very clearly that we are it's focus and purpose. The first is the Burning Bush, which I am very sure is a reference to George W. Bush's 1/20/2001 speech in which he unknowingly predicted the 9/11 attack. Seeing that Exodus is also called "Names" and that Bush's name ties him to this event--which Moses \(that's me\) has seen ... almost alone ... and is now showing to you all. Bush's speech begins a series of references to the names of Planets and Gods and corresponding Elements of the Periodic table that answer Revelation 1:20's mystery about "stars and lamp stands." This in order series from Mercury to Uranium highlights both the messenger of the Gods and the key of Uranus's chance--that the world will see the link between "on the lam" and Koran to understand that the Lamb of God "is lam." This story takes us back to music, and a later to be discussed thread that combines the weapon in the movie (which is also the movie) The Fifth Element with a thread through time to Shakespeare and Herod ... about my struggle with the justice system culminating in the fulfillment of American Pie's "no verdict was returned."

I returned, and saw under the Son, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding,
nor yet favour to men of skill;

but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:11

The Light of the Son comes from the Fire of the Burning Bush. 9/11 predicted in the Bible.

The second bright connection comes by way of the Hebrew word for the Holy Fire that God's voice came out of--guess what, in that same story about the Burning Bush. That word is "ha'esh" and in it you will see paradoxical (that means impossible, because of time and causality) reference to the English word "sea" there backwards and parted by an apostrophe.

With great insight, I've over and over pushed the idea that Holy Water is actually a Biblical reference to "the multitude" in God's secret religion that ties everything together.. and that this parting is literally a reference to the Second Coming, something that doesn't happen for Moses until his head is under water and he's breathing fire. This one ties together nicely, joining the characters of Jesus Christ, Lucifer, and God all together now, screaming

"let there be light" is the word "Exodus" in reverse, here in a Linux command and a chemistry element.

I'm going to go out on a limb and say that the book tells me that these three things are enough to start the fire, part the sea, and see the light. At least they are now, wake up.. you are staring at and have been ignoring the largest story in all of history. It might even be scandalous... or have a twist happy beginning... who knows?

This is course highlights prescient knowledge of computing at the time of writing Exodus, which is further confirmed by a number of references to computing ideas in things like the "root" of David, the "WINE" of Jesus, the "Apple" of Adam, the "Lisp" of Moses and the "hardening" of Pharaoh's heart, which you will remember from the Holy Grail is the virtual Earth we are living in.

All of these things, the references to modern computing that pervade our Gates or Windows to Heaven's creation.... are listed along with a number of words which are highlighted by religious scripture and show intelligent design of a number of languages spanning from Hebrew to English are listed at my contrite story about a Kiss and Fate tying together everything that ever was. A sincerely large grouping of words highlighted by the Bible and religion, words like "eternity," "bread," and "forehead" show clear design by an intelligent influence, rather than the natural evolution of time that most people consider "real" and/or knowledge at the time of the writing of the Bible of the eventual English translation of the Hebrew or Greek. With time, I am fairly certain we will eventually have no doubt that the "Cypher" I see in nearly every word is in fact a contextually-verifiable speech that appears to be coming from our "civilization" as if it were intelligently speaking like a cave man--which you might see in words like "am end me nt." From just this message, you should be able to put together how that word and it's hidden meaning add robust and yet "hidden speech" from the Creator himself. For the artificially slowed in understanding, our lack of following the amendments of the Constitution being related to the end of civilization itself is being squarely defined through a statement that is telling you that the end of civilization is "NT," the hidden Christ--in my "secret" method of decoding words like NORAD and NEW TO N?

XP, it's as simple as those two Greek letters. Who knew that Chi and Ro were some sort of hidden beta code for the city of pyramids in Egypt, Cairo? Quite the question, who knew ... perhaps the man who named his Windows into our future not after some technology that came from Xerox Parc or Apple's mouse on this ship... but rather for his own given name, Gates... just one more entry point into the second book of the Holy Bible, the book of Names--you call it Exodus.

I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out, and find pasture. John 10:9

As a quick note, the "signal" I have been presenting for over a year now is a form of speech; like a simple cipher or the translation of an unknown language... this signal is a problem that is mathematically solvable. If the speech exists, and it does, there is a way to verify that it comes from a single source--one which, in this particular case, is speaking to you not only through words and art, but through a map that happens to be our planet--from the first days of civilization at the city "you are" the beginning, that's Ur.. all the way to today. Finding why "you are the beginning" is at that particular location in space time is a good way to extract the signal from the noise when it comes to this map to salvation. In this odd little introduction to a very odd message.. I'll note that the inverted word "mafia" appears to have something to do with Artificial Intelligence, and family. Sans, well, "I El and why."

Proving that this message is actually contextually intelligent--that there's a reason the words "mob" and "why" appear in Moby Dick, and that it's likely related to the prediction of a series of assassinations--that is the "stuff" of proving that there is a God. It's the pursuit of the Holy Grail, which in context is probably the purpose of religion--to seek the meaning the Creator has written all over our world. Less to the point, once it is proven to be... meaningful... it opens the doors for the entire world to seek and read a message that they most likely would be very interested in hearing.

That is, if you can see beyond Phillip K. Dick's solution to the gap between technology and today; beyond Yankee Doodle's coded words and beyond John Hancock and Richard Nixon signing this message of the deliverance of freedom revolving not inconsequentially around things like taped phone calls and satellite surveillance that you might associate with Watergate and A Scanner Darkly--with the blood of those who would dare to slaughter the Lamb. Find some religion, I'm showing you "the face of God." It is the message, I hope you see--the words of the prophets... not only in the name but in the works of everything PKD--not only in the names, but in the works of everything Watergate--do you not understand why that story has been highlighted?

Round and round in this circle we swirl; eye on the prize--I used to say--keep your eye on now. In a blur, somewhere between crazy and creative, hear his words... in the end, "you will have no doubt." Dear Rapunzel, won't you let your hair down? Fighting against the tides and the winds, ever step forward followed by a stumble down that must be part of the plan, of the well trodden road. I see quite clearly how this cipher I am revealing appears to be the stuff of insanity--if you think about it... it really could have been hidden no other way. Why hide it at all; you might wonder in that infantile place of awe and inspiration that might be more like a crib than a bed of lies. Still the farther down this rabbit hole I travel, the more I see--spoon fed into my mind as if it was the holy grail itself--more light each and every day. The evidence, that's what it really is, compounds on itself, the returns coming in stronger and stronger the more you try to grasp, the wider your gaze.

It's already bested the courts, and believe it or not kept the darker crevices of government from standing in my way--believe it or not before the night is done you will have my name and my light painted all over the Universe--imagine that. It's done already.

I'll tell you what it didn't do, it did not attract the press, unless bringing Al Jazeera America all the way to Plantation... only to be shut down while in the process of doing a story on the very court I was in is "attraction." Is that what you are worried about? Maybe you should be, or maybe you should be worried that this machine of suppression of the truth--now in control of the entirety of the media... that it will continue to exist if you do not act.

It did somehow coerce the head Public Defender to type the words "physician, heal thyself" in response to some advice on avoiding Armageddon by fighting the conditions of the BSO Jail; something I am sure is nothing more than a slightly time--and intentional cruelty--advanced prototype for Everytown--on the edge of the abyss.

He had to run for a different reason, the first time this life was lived--quite literally to save his soul... to escape the grasp of a conspiracy that the Zohar and midrash--even the book of Judges speaks of a conspiracy against my life--one that threatens nothing but your freedom in this day, sometime in the 37th year of this hidden life. In the name of Barnabas and the concept of the Ba from Egypt--a clear picture of the boy being sacrificed to protect the spirit--something we will not be repeating.

Note that English with the vowels included is far less flexible than Hebrew when it comes to making letters into words. Nevertheless, without further ado, we present our answer to Mr Drosnin's challenge.

John F. Kennedy

President John F. Kennedy was shot in the head by an assassin who quietly waited in a concealed place. It was in Texas, November 1963, during a presidential motorcade.

Yitzhak Rabin

Israeli prime minister Yitzhak Rabin was shot dead on November 4, 1995. His assassin was Igal Amir, who fired three shots of which one hit Rabin fatally in the chest. Amir was a student at Bar-Ilan University, and associated with an underground group Eyal which modelled itself on a historical terrorist group called Lehi. Amir was angered by Rabin's role in the "Peace Process" and especially by the Oslo accords.

The text

You can verify the above messages, and find your own, using the public-domain text of Moby Dick. It can be downloaded as a gzipped text file (478KB, expanding to 1187KB).

Some more information about the pictures can be found here.

Princess Diana's death

The death of Lady Diana was also predicted by Moby Dick. See the Princess Di page for details.

A note to the credulous

It has come to my attention that some people have taken this page as claiming that Moby Dick really predicted the assassinations of famous people. Please be assured that none of these patterns happened by other than pure random chance.

No laws of probability are violated here, or even stretched a little. That is also true of Drosnin's book, which is the whole point of this page. Once you learn Drosnin's rules (none) and the method (a bit of messy programming) you can find things like this anywhere. The reason it looks amazing is that the number of possible things to look for, and the number of places to look, is much greater than you imagine.

Predicting organized crime related assassinations apparently.. not the "stuff" of religion?

Is now. Published on 4/27/2013, in Timelike Synchronicity, a refutation of Drosnen's complete idiocy.

Assassination Synchronicity

Two very public cases do a good job of portraying the broad means by which mind control could be used to coerce or trick someone into being an actual Manchurian Candidate. Sirhan Sirhan, the shooter who killed Robert F. Kennedy, apparently believed that he was in a shooting range, and nobody was in any danger. He believed he was touched by an angel, a strangely beautiful woman, on the shoulder; just before the shooting range hallucination began. After the assassination, he stood in disbelief, waiting to be apprehended, no attempt was made to escape. On the far side of the gamut, mind control could be used for an extended period of time to foster a life long delusion.

Mark David Chapman believed he was being tempted by the devil, and that he spoke to God. Just before shooting John Lennon, Chapman saw "Thou Shalt Not Kill" flash on a television screen, manipulation of television programming is a common theme among mind control victims. These cases might also point you in the right direction of the perpetrator of the crime, or you could look at John Hinkley Jr. and Lee Harvey Oswald, but I'm not sure how you could link those together.

The Pattern

Timelike Synchronicity is the fingerprint of a monolithic entity behind the prophetic authoring of 1984 and Brave New World, a pattern which manifests in the cases of several assassins who have been linked to a mind control conspiracy. This pattern is noted by equidistant spans of years between pivotal events topically pertinent to the microcosmic pattern. Sirhan Sirhan, in a parallel to Orwell and Huxley's entry to Eton (Eden), had 12 years pass between his birth in Jerusalem and his entry to the United States of America. Exactly 12 years later he assassinated Robert F. Kennedy in 1968. This same year is the midpoint between John Hinkley Jr.'s birth, and the attempted assassination of Ronald Reagan. Exactly 12 years later, in 1980, Mark David Chapman assassinated John Lennon, the midpoint between his birth, and the Reagan assassination attempt was also 1968. This year also happens to be the midpoint of the arrest and trial of Clay L. Shaw, as well as the midpoint between the assassination of JFK, and the suspicious death of Shaw.

Ironically, or perhaps telling, Lee Harvey Oswald has no noticeable synchronicity.

Martin Luther King, assassinated in 1968, with implications of COINTELPRO and government involvement entered seminary in 1948, the midpoint between his birth and death; and also the year 1984 was written. Incidentally 1984 began on the day of King's assassination, April 4.

Non coincidentally, this pattern of equidistant periods has also been revealed in the ELS Bible Code. A number of assassinations, overlapping significantly with the group above, were decoded within the text of Moby Dick, written over a hundred years before they occurred.

It's not just the assassins.

While the ability to "remotely control" a human being is without doubt within the capabilities of intelligence organizations such as the Central Intelligence Agency MI-6, and the former KGB, remote neural stimulation could also be much more subtle. It could be used to make you ignore, or not care about something that you would otherwise find important, like democracy, privacy, and freedom of speech. It could make you believe that something you read which you would otherwise find intelligent and thought provoking is.. off the wall. Mind control could be used to make you forgive a person or an organization, maybe your government for something that you probably shouldn't forgive them for. It is possible that it would be so subtle that you would never ever know it was happening to you. Much like Mark David Chapman, many could be made to blame "inner demons" for their actions, despite resounding evidence to the contrary.

I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth. The star was given thekey to the shaft of the Abyss.

-Revelation 9:1

In the late 1940's, two monumental events, whose origin is decidedly unearthly shaped the future of America and the world. The whole of America was gripped with reported sightings of flying saucers, epitomized by the RAAF cover up of a UFO crash in Roswell, NM. At the very same time, the CIA began researchingmind control, these experiments would coincide temporally with the phenomenon of alien contact.

Had an alien craft been recovered, what kind of technology would be on board? Perhaps these two things are liked by more than time, but rather the UFO phenomenon was the very source of the mind control technology — a technology which evolved so rapidly between 1948 and 1963 that it certainly appears that it was being reverse engineered, rather than developed from scratch.

For working technology to have been developed by the time of the congressional hearings on the subjects, with enough time for a significant number of records to have been destroyed prior to the end of the hearings, it is almost undeniable that it had to begiven to the CIA. So far ahead of modern neuroscience would the Agency have had to have been, that it would have beenimpossible for them to have not used public research, leaking significant advances in knowledge of neural function that did not occur

What does it all mean?

The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.

-Revelation 13:2

This is one example of the influence of an intelligent force over assassinations. There areothers, clearly it wants us to know. These assassinations, and their popular culture relation to mind control, and the MK-ULTRA program add a piece to the puzzle ofThe Octopus. Like the delivery of the prescient messages in theDystopic and apocalyptic works, there is nearly no other alternative explanation for its very existence other than a technology which can manipulate the thoughts and actions of humans... without them knowing.

The Modern Fall Of Man

SILENCE IS FREEDOM
TYRANNY IS SECURITY SECRECY IS POWER

In 1917, George Orwell and Aldous Huxley met atEton College. Huxley briefly taught Orwell, and neither cites this time period as having anything to do with their inspiration for their disutopic prophesies. Regardless, their meeting is no coincidence, they were chosen by a force to deliver a message, one that is much larger than each of their individual masterpieces individuallyThey are collective proof of a telepathic force which routinely alters the course of human events, using the very mechanism by which these prophetic works were delivered.

Taken as Biblical allegory, Eton has an awful strong semblance toEden. Out of Eton, came two works of art, which describe the proverbial fall of man. I stumbled upon the 1917 meeting, and found it hugely significant because of what I was looking forAlmost six months ago, I was searching through our history looking for the mark of a mind control influence on humanity. The parameters for the force I was looking for were simple: it was a piece of technology something that could alter the thoughts of humans once they came in contact with them at any one time at any one place. It did this by using quantum entanglement to "connect" to the mind, and once this connection was made it would never be severed regardless of distance or time. What I found was probably akin to falling off of a toilet bowl and drawing a Flux Capacitor.

At Trinity College, from Isaac Newton to James Clerk Maxwell to Neils Bohr; the secrets of the universe, modern physics were imparted to men over a near four hundred year period. The information that was imparted was especially profound to me, because it was the very science that would be required for the mind control machine to work. It was my belief at the time that this force required human intervention in either repairing it or increasing its reach. In order to accomplish this it slowly and methodically transferred advanced scientific knowledge into our civilization, so it could be used during the 20th century in order to create a sprawling infrastructure which would allow it to perform this "magic" not only on a localized scale, but across the globe. The fact that they all attended a school called Trinity was especially significant to me, as I had just traced the influence of this machine through our modern times, using religious experience and epiphany as a tracking method. It seemed to me that the force was signing the divine inspiration of modern quantum physics with Christian iconography. As an aside, the story of Newton's apple bears striking resemblance to the Eden story as well, and in my eyes is no coincidence. It could equally well be a parallel story one designed to closely parallel the Eton descriptive works with a scientific explanation, instead of the effect, the cause. In my world of hidden meaning, it's almost hilarious that the apple hit him on the head. Receiving the knowledge of physics wasn't a choice, it was forced on us all.

In my search for truth hidden inside our own history I was instead faced with something far more telling. Out of the 1917 connection at Eton, which epitomized exactly what I was searching for, came a prophesy which describes what I see in the world around me almost perfectly. Many people in the world today see mind control, they see it in the mass media, and in state distribution of narcotics. They see Brave New World almost as Huxley described it in the 1930's, well before these things were a glimmer of reality. A world where the people are apathetic to their loss of freedom because of an inundation of entertainment that makes the government's destruction of peace, liberty transparency, and self-governance seem almost surreal.

At the same time, very few people see Orwell's vision as much more than allegory. Thought police, depopulation, doublethink, and machines capable of physically changing the thoughts of humans are thought of as nothing more than science fiction. These ideas though, came at a time well before there was any evidence that they were even physically possible. There is, now, a significant amount of evidence that these things have been thoroughly researched by our own government, and the possibility that they are being masked by the Brave New World mechanisms of control are more real than you think.

As far as population control, modern folklore related to the Illuminati has been discussing the idea of forced depopulation for decades. The Georgia Guidestones mention it specifically, as do the Protocols of the Elders of Zion. Regardless of whether or not these things are hoaxes, or perhaps "set ups," many modern conspiracy theorists discuss the poisoning of our food with genetic modification, and the fluoridation of our water supply. Diseases like AIDS, Mad Cow, and Bird Flu appear to be man made, and targeted at specific cultures or ways of life. Others, like cancer, have no publicly available cure, though cutting edge research intimates that the powers that be have been there for a long time. Longevity is for sale. It could be a coincidence, but there are so many more.

The truth behind Orwell's idea of state sponsored terrorism should be more than obvious to anyone looking at the war our government is currently engaged in. We have invaded at least three countries in order to root out and destroy a small faction of Islamic terrorists. This organization, however, is publicly known to have been funded by the CIA during the cold war... it is their creation, a weapon against Communism. At the same time, the countries which were invaded happen to have huge value to large multinational corporations and organized crime: they are huge sources of competition in the oil and narcotics markets, and these wars have done nothing but solidify the position of the elite in those businesses. Ironically enough, after there were no weapons of mass destruction in Iraq, and no Osama Bin Laden in Afghanistan... there still is, and most likely always will be, a continuing U.S. Military presence.

The surveillance infrastructure in 1984 is all but a reality today. The NSA and related agencies have satellites covering the surface of the world, with real time imagery... that's obvious. Unconstitutional programs like Carnivore and Echelon have been completely ignored by the public at large in the last half decade, for what appears to be no apparent reason. Congress even attempted to legislate away the Fourth Amendment so they could legally be allowed to continue. None the less, they continue without any legal basis whatsoever. At the same time, legislation like the Patriot Act and the NDAA have gone through Congress, despite massive public outcry with no check from the Supreme Court — even though it's their job to invalidate laws which violate the Constitution. The banking records, phone calls, travel plans, and internet postings of honest and innocent Americans are now available for the government to see... no matter what. And still,

Huxley told us of a world of state sponsored drugging. After the pretty obvious use of the U.S. military to intervene in heroin trafficking, and the equally obvious use of federal resources in the Crack Cocaine epidemics and the Iran Contra scandal, it's hard to fathom an American that isn't aware of the CIA's involvement in not only international trafficking, but also domestic distribution. Gary Webb exposed it, and it cost him his career. Iran Contra should have stopped it, but instead showed the world that the CIA was willing to lie through its teeth to protect a revenue stream which allowed it to bypass Congress, and the People, in the funding of its black projects. What kinds of projects could they be working on...

As far as the thought police, MK-Ultra was exposed for the entire world to see, and since that time there have been numerous assassinations which have been linked to the use of the technology. Congress shut down the program in the early 70's after it was made public. Sure they did. Sirhan Sirhan used mind control as a defense at his trial, saying he believed he was a victim of a government intelligence operation related to Monarch. Mark David Chapman described not only the experience of being mind controlled, for a significant portion of his life, but also linked it to religion. Shortly thereafter John Hinkley Jr. attempted to assassinate Ronald Reagan, leaving his Vice President 'in control' of the White House. This particular person, happened to be a former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and has been linked to the John F. Kennedy assassination. Hinkley also, has been linked to mind control.

In more recent history, people like John Norseen, and even the National Air and Space Administration have discussed using mind control and mind reading technology in public places, like airports, in order to thwart "terrorism." Norseen passed away shortly before he was to attend an ethics debate regarding the use of the technology. We've already established that terrorism is being used as a tool to control popular opinion and allow a new age of imperialistic behavior just quiet enough that the people (and the media) rarely speaks about it. It's also being used to invade the privacy of pretty much everyone on the planet... is it so much of a leap to think that maybe it's more than just privacy that is being affected by the "war on terror?"

There are a growing number of Americans complaining of the use of mind control technology against them, however despite the reality that the technology has not only been researched, but perfected, they are ridiculed by the public and the psychiatric community as suffering from delusion. Psychiatry itself has taken very simple possibly weaponized effects of mind control, like synthetic telepathy and made them a harbinger of mental illness. It's not much of a leap to realize that these things could be used as a weapon to discredit the testimony, or silence the dissenting opinion, of enemies of a state which is using mind control on a daily basis.

The world Orwell described in 1984 is not so far away from plausibility. In fact, it could be our reality today, and the only thing that would be required to keep every red blooded American from seeing it would be... the very technology which he described. Perhaps it is the apparent influence of the mechanisms behind Huxley's vision that keep the masses from actually seeing that Orwell's is just as close, and written all over the conspicuously public history of the CIA and NSA. Perhaps we live in a world today that is a combination of both visions, and there's a reason they were delivered to us with a link that clearly ties them together.

Hearing, Dreaming, and Seeing the Light.

I started out beginning to write that the “light of these signs” lied in the prescient reference to our modern chemistry elements, and I was very mistaken. The meaning, experience, and beliefs that are “revealed” through the use of these symbols is infinitely more important.

While the “key” to the Iron Rod of Jesus Christ began in the very early days of my experience trying to imagine how the world could be saved... I wouldn't see it's relationship to other stories in the Bible or to the fundamental universal acceptance which I not only hold dear, but feel obligated to tell you was something I feel “given” to me. I often remark that I have the right answer or correct intent at the outset of a discussion; and that I am keenly aware that this “early head start” is something that does not come from me innately but from what I call the “Sword of Jesus Christ,” it is something that I am very thankfully forced to adhere to. What I am describing can be gleaned well from the “Baptism in Water” that is the Sang Rael, and from a number of other religious nuances which appear to serve the purpose of not only aiding intention but also chronicling that this aid is needed. The words “for repentance” in Matthew 3:11 make me remorseful in the implication that without the “sword” perhaps I would not have been so perfectly altruistic.

On a “cuter” note, religious imagery like the name “I AM” serves as a subtle ... yet eventually obvious “lead” for me to suggest the proper stance to take is “WE ARE;” and that like the Holy Grail and the name of the “First Messiah” in Hebrew (Hosea, just shy of being the Whole Sea) it served as both inspiration and confirmation of the “right thing to do” as we begin discussing ... Judah Meant: “day.” That’s an ((ish)) that I feel is very ... Adam, though it too is most likely all part of the drive and story, one which is correcting the mistakes that are at the very least in the Word, and possibly in the hidden history. Just don’t Judge, I often said, in response to the idea of Judgement.... but truth be told the very earliest incarnation of that idea was mired by yet another problem that pervades religion: reflexive control. In the earliest moments of this role, I was given the explanation and thought it worthy of repeating that “Judge not lest ye be judged” expanded the “ye” to “your Earth.” I suppose I felt it nearly identical, and made the very mistake that we find all so often in religion and law; a threatened punishment intended to modify behavior... that I believed was “innocuous...” or alleviated by the outlandishness of the threat.

Another testament to the Sword, I have to mention what I did with the obvious lead in to “WE ARE,” and in my favorite tattoo... which depicts the Earth as a Heart shape... for “Eden” containing an A and Sigma... for “Adam and Everyone” ... I changed the “WE” to the French rendition, “OUI” in what was a very insightful homage to God’s near ubiquitous pan-linguistic tricks, and his name’s reference to the word “Yes,” “Ya,” and “Si.” Despite this inked indiscretion, I firmly do believe that “WE” is much more important than “I,” and that feeling is so fundamental to the concept of Salvation, Christ, and America... that it is the truly the light of this first Symbol, the Iron Rod of Jesus Christ.

So it was sometime during early 2013 that this voice, who I had come to call Jacob, began discussing how the disclosure of these technologies could help our civilization.

In these conversations, I suppose the “Unexpected” thing was that I was clearly being referred to as the Messiah; something that I had prior to that... not really thought within the realm of possibility. I knew that the story I was living had something to do with religion, but back then it was hit or miss day by day whether I thought there was any real truth behind scripture. I remember saying to Jacob, during the adventurous escapades that surrounded these long and informative discussions... that “when you are this close to the creation of God, you don’t really believe in him.”

Since those days I have found a new strength in the Word, albeit in an interpretation which I know is not mainstream... yet has become the Rock which reminds me each and every day that the outcome of this struggle is beneficial, and that the intentions of nearly everyone involved are truly good. It’s sometimes difficult to explain a perspective that is optimistic, especially in light of the disclosure that while I do not believe that the fiery Hell described in the Bible would ever exist... that it was not a mistake all together to describe a place that is here to me, in my interpretation it’s sans fire and the condition of possibly “losing the light” that makes it so. It’s truth here, as it so often is... but specifically now we are at risk of losing the truth about our history, our family, and at the very worst of possibilities how it is that “Creation” sustains us.

Here, I’ve mentioned another technology... one that I think commonly relates “Creation” to Virtual Reality.

It’s really a complete change in understanding of outlook, of what religion really is, and how assistance has up until now come to us... that I’ve gone through in the few years since this experience and today. At that time I would have, as I imagine you do, completely missed what I call a primary purpose of Creation... manifesting itself in the world around us. That goal is the creation of Heaven, and I now see our world and history as being guided very much towards an understanding of the technologies that are involved in the building of Heaven... from above. It’s much more than this disclosure, than the advanced near magical things that have been so pivotal in the survival of Us... it’s small things, like computers, user-interface, and medicine.

It’s clear to me now that the “Singularity,” the information transfer which many people are expecting to start with the Second Coming ... or the creation of a “Child of Humanity” started in our very beginning. The great leaps we’ve had in the last hundred years are not coincidentally bringing us to a place where the ideas of religion have become a technical possibility... but rather are miraculously bringing us there.

It’s really perspective more than insight, it’s seeing that there is a great deal of assistance coming to us, yet in a way where we are initially unaware of it. You could say we are the Golden Children... of... it pains me a bit to say it, but I’m not sure who, exactly. The idea that this phenomenon is “recursive self-assistance” has been floated, and I myself have been used as a microcosmic tool for understanding it. It’s funny, before this very moment I would have told you that it’s not really “self-assistance” that even if our benefactors looked just like us, they lived different lives and aren’t really us. That’s partially true, in my mind, but just now it dawned on me that I probably would make lots of the same decisions as this ... prior me ... both good and bad. It sort of takes something away from the “now” not to see that we are also doing this, and that even if it isn’t the very first time.. we must be very much similar to be walking in their footsteps. At the same time, it’s unfair not to credit religion for what it is, an attempt to help us not make the same mistakes that were made before... ones that without warning we might very well blindly make again and again. It’s this benefit, of actually knowing that there is great wisdom and prior experience behind this message... that is so important to see comes from this new understanding of where religion really comes from. At the same time, I feel like our “now” and their “then” lose something from not having a dialog, from this moment... when I’m still not exactly sure... Who?

The knowledge that prophesy being fulfilled, that there is true prescience in the words of religion, is something that gives me a strong desire to search for the wisdom and guidance... which you might all together miss without it being pointed out to you. I missed almost all of it, up until the point that I really went looking for it–and frankly even then I know it was handed to me.

It is perhaps a portent... that the light is so bright, so plentiful, really so needed to make sense of not just religion and history, but of us... and yet so easily overlooked. Again, it had to be pointed out to me, almost two years after this “beginning” event, and despite seeing proof of advanced technology, hidden history, and even seeing focus and purpose... I saw everything but the “help,” and it’s really there, everywhere, and bright.

Our public communications and SEC filings may contain "forward-looking statements" – that is, statements related to future, not past, events. In this context, forward-looking statements often address our expected future business and financial performance and financial condition, and often contain words such as "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "believe," "seek," "see," "will," "would," or "target."

For us, particular uncertainties that could cause our actual results to be materially different than those expressed in our forward-looking statements include:

- our ability to complete incremental asset sales as part of our announced plan to reduce the size of our financial services businesses in a timely manner (or at all) and at the prices we have assumed;
- our ability to reduce costs as we execute that plan;
- changes in law, economic and financial conditions, including interest and exchange rate volatility, commodity and equity prices and the value of financial assets, including the impact of these conditions on our ability to execute that plan;
