If you happen to be a big fan of Dr. Who, Jesus Christ or if you are unfamiliar with me and my shpiel attached in "JERUSALEM.pdf (for the PDF wary, this is a website)" is what I consider proof that religion is a sort of hidden message sent back in time from our future about time travel specifically to me so that I can read it to you. Many, many, many people are receiving a Christmas card this year from Adam; and I am pretty sure that this is the beginning of something really fascinating. Of note, this "question that must never be answered" has been circulating quite well across the globe in the last few days--still, it will take someone actually "working" to write a story on the biggest story ever told.

I am pretty sure this is Pulitzer stuff. It's practically guaranteed. Come on, think about it.

There are a number of ways to prove this; seeing 40 days and 40 nights as an allusion to the 4th dimension is a good way to start seeing that the Ark's of Genesis and Exodus are ... the place we are living in--a shield against ... repeated unknowing destruction of a timeline in secret.

Exodus gives us much more, aside from predictions of 9/11 and a sincerely large volume of English words appearing anachronistically inside Hebrew and Arabic transliteration... there are numerous referencing to computing concepts hidden in these ancient religions--and on the other side of that coin, a sincerely large number of references to religion and religious concepts in modern video game and computing companies. Maybe everyone already knows we are building Heaven right here and right now; or maybe we don't see a hidden hand telling us just that.

Just as you see the USA at the heart of the place in time that is Jerusalem, you might also see it in Greek myths, like Prometheus--who just happens to be battling an Eagle. In Mesopotamia you might have the source of Saint One described in funny sounding broken English; and then there is the U.S. Military's complete infatuation with that same mythology. I can't imagine why. A huge number of myths relate, like Icarus; who you might remember lost his wings for flying too close to the sun...

take these broken wings, and learn to fly.

Just full of ideas today, I received a "Glomar response" for a request to the NSA for FOIA records on myself. Basically that means they said "we can neither confirm nor deny" because "if we told you, you would know." I'm not sure if the press has better results with these kinds of records requests, but I'd imagine that both the NSA and CIA have large files on me. Bluntly, God has spoken the words "the NSA is recording everything you say" more times than I could count. I will probably write an appeal, but maybe... just maybe, the NSA will see a golden opportunity to ... figure out how to break a story like this--if one of you asked them for the same records. Just maybe, who knows.

I consistently ask them for satellite imagery as a matter of morality--it's obvious clear that they have real-time ground satellite surveillance; and the fact that they just seem to think it would be too inconvenient to use this stuff for, oh I don't know... child abduction is without doubt the source of the phrase CODE ADAM. In my small world, anyway. Public disclosure of this particular obvious fact would probably do a great deal to make the world a better place. This is part of the reason I am so hard on these idiots.

Reporters who have previously had success retrieving records from the NSA would probably be a plus--I do have a documented in-person visit to NSA headquarters in 2012 on my old blog--there is no way that they do not have a file on me; and I'm pretty sure I know it.

Heaven or Hell?

vow·el

a speech sound that is produced by comparatively open configuration of the vocal tract, with vibration of the vocal cords but without audible friction and is a unit of the sound system of a language that forms the nucleus of a syllable.

- a letter representing a vowel sound, such as a, e, i, o, u.

So, what do you think about using vowel frequency to distinguish signal from noise in Bible Code?

There is no doubt in my mind that this phenomenon is designed specifically to help us distinguish signal from noise, and to prove without doubt that there is a clear and defined communication from the beyond--being delivered to us via our own hands. With Holy Purpose.

If we had seen this message encoded in almost exactly the same way in a radio wave, at SETI; this would be the biggest news story in history. Since though, you are receiving an intelligent message about a technology which can be used to covertly alter our thoughts--and cause us to write it with our very own hands--we seem to think this message is insignificant. Never mind proof of prescience and prophesy--there's a horrible plague of idiocy when it comes to using science with religion.

I wonder what else is encoded in Moby Dick. Maybe the frequency of religious sub-words, like: den, in, son, well, and mor -- might be significant.

ELS is showing you language in what is otherwise nothing but noise--that's not random, it's not coincidence, and it's not something that will go unnoticed. Don't you think the code breakers know better? The very clear point here is this is not random noise, it is communication, and it's obvious.

Statistical Science publishes Bible Codes Refutation

<http://users.cecs.anu.edu.au/~bdm/codes/StatSci/>

The only paper published in a refereed scientific journal that claims to find evidence for the reality of the Bible Codes is the paper Equidistant Letter Sequences in the Book of Genesis, by Doron Witztum, Eliyahu Rips, and Yoav Rosenberg (WRR), Statistical Science, Vol. 9 (1994) 429-438.

We are now happy to announce that, after review by four senior statisticians chosen by the journal, Statistical Science has published a thorough rebuttal: Vol. 14 (1999) 150-

The new paper is Solving the Bible Code Puzzle, by Brendan McKay, Dror Bar-Natan, Maya Bar-Hillel, and Gil Kalai. Here is the abstract:

It's more obvious maybe, to the guy who sees his full name encoded over the stories Adam, Isaac, Samson, Jeremiah, Isaiah, and Revelation... still, when you see Michael Drosnin make an outlandish statement like "show me the prediction of a Prime Minister assassination encoded in Moby Dick and I will believe you" only to find a series of assassinations predicted in ... Moby Dick. It is Heavenly Theatre, and it shows the "hand of God" influencing not only the writing of the book, but the statement of Drosnin.... and the entirety of the controversy surrounding this message that is clear as night. It takes true intelligence to see that these patterns take true intelligence to lay down; a machine can translate from one language to another.. take language and mask it with noise. It takes a beautiful mind to paint a beautiful picture, and another to appreciate it.

Homework, Domingo, 2016

Orwell, Orson Wells, James Clerk Maxwell; from Min to Me;

Biblically speaking, tomorrow is "that Monday ," the day that the fire starts. It's a day that unlocks something that has been hidden away for a very long time--a day of great joy .

A very special Holiday message this year , different from all others. Never before and never again will any generation have the opportunity that we have before us this very moment. Right now , as we progress in a technological growing period equally unprecedented--we are blessed to have a great deal of wisdom and assistance coming to us from a series of past futures. All around us the light of religion pours into the modern myths of our day--science fiction and fantasy guided from above in a way that will soon become more clear . At the same time, we will soon also see a guided path towards the building of Heaven in everything that we are--from computers and video games to modern medicine and even the ups and downs we've witnessed in the political scene of late.

I feel a little silly talking about what I have to say , I've already said quite a bit--you haven't seen it yet. Waiting just past a wall of censorship Biblically described as Jericho's--and also the Plague of Darkness--is a new lease on the freedoms God is now granting at the very "beginning" of the American story . Like me, God has already said quite a bit--and in this e-mail and throughout my writing I hope to help you to see what it is that I call his speech written all over our world--a sort of hidden message the tooth fairy left under our pillow while we slept. To quote the Matrix, "this is a very exciting time."

Seasons greetings,

Adam Marshall Dobrin

Since the e-mail about Donald Trump buying your newspaper is attached, and I keep thinking about it--I feel like I should point out that everything I suggested you might not want to happen--like Trump buying all the newspapers and consolidation in the defense contractor industry--these things have already happened, and you have done nothing. Well, most of you. These things are cause for serious alarm, and more than any other industry--the media must remain free and independently operating or you might wind up with a only a handful of conglomerates who have decided (or had a decision made for them) to do something absolutely insane... like hide the biggest story in all of human history. There's a lesson here, I'm sure.

The Bible Code cross begins with these words: My servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. 14 According as many were appalled at thee--so marred was his visage unlike that of a man, and his form unlike that of the sons of men--So shall he startle many nations, - Isaiah

These clippings, from www.whentheapocalypse.com are written sometime in 2012, and published in Timelike Synchronicity in 2013. Ostensibly they are intended to be used as verifiable proof that our history has been designed by the same hand which has influenced the development of language. I believe that the number of instances of patterns following this sequence is enough to call into question everything we believe about history--that is what religion and the introduction of proof of time travel does either way.

The Synchronicity of Nash, Matthews, and Angleton

In a parallel to the timelike synchronicity between Huxley and Orwell, Nash and Matthews share equidistant 81 years between their schizophrenia diagnoses in 1797 and 1959, respectively; and the recording of the disease in 1878, by Emil Kraepelin combined the various diseases of the mind who named it 'Dementia Praecox'.

Angleton has his own timelike synchronicity revolving around 1959, with his entry to the Army and his resignation from the CIA exactly 16 years equidistant, in 1943 and 1975.

Both Angleton and Nash would have feature films created about them, depicting and clearly reinforcing the belief that they were suffering from paranoia.

You are about to be enlightened.

Through a prophetic message cleverly hidden surrounding the Dystopic works of George Orwell and Aldous Huxley in it is a linear pattern in time which points to the 4 year period for the Apocalypse between 2012 and 2016 — or right this very minute. The message itself, it's spanning of multiple generations proves that it has been intentionally left for us to find. The technology being used, has been viewed as occult magic, but it's actually based on modern science, and this is the whole point.

The apocalypse... that a hidden force has used advanced physics to manipulate our thoughts since the birth of our civilization. Through the Genesis Synchronicity the allegorical works of Orwell and Huxley describe the Modern Fall of Man. A parallel exists in the work of Phillip K. Dick, and his visions of the future.

"I occasionally think, how quickly our differences worldwide would vanish if we were facing an alien threat from outside this world. And yet, I ask is not an alien force already among us?"

Ronald Reagan

All around you the world is changing, and a hidden conspiracy The Octopus has been working feverishly to create a New World Order in which you, are a nobody. This is the prophesied battle between the Synagogue of Satan and the Forces of Good, and this time of great upheaval will, with your help, result in a lasting victory for the common good.

Why is this message significant?

The message itself has a very high statistical significance, but more importantly the meaning of it has such a high correlation between the content of 1984 and Brave new World and the real world machinations revealed in everything from JFK to Reagan to The New World Order that it should be obvious that this was the whole point of the message, and linking them together via synchronicity. "Doom and gloom" is a reflexive tool, it's time to stop being upset that things have gone down hill, and start taking baby steps back up to the top.

Paranoia Is A Weapon

It's to give you a reason not to believe...•

For thousands of years, the induction of insanity via a technological weapon has been viewed as the weapon of the devil. Satan has long been a tool of an extraterrestrial influence, one to shed blame to. Demonic possession has been fought by the Churches of our past as a real weapon attributed to a real enemy. Today that enemy is more prevalent than ever, and its true nature is being revealed to the world. It's power is the ability to both subtly and overtly manipulate the minds of humans, and in modern times it has been written about repeatedly as an infestation within global government, a secretive force which manifests itself in positions of power and greed. This force is alien, and its technology far advanced from the equipment utilized by our own intelligence agencies, who have most likely searched for and obtained mind control technology in an attempt to understand this influence—of which they are fully aware.

This extraterrestrial influence is now, and has always used a group of humans in order to carry out its hidden war against humanity. It uses mind control, the artificial induction of delusion, and this human force in order to commit atrocities, using a force it later will destroy thus blaming its enemies for committing these acts on its behalf. In the late 50's it used the USSR in the cases of I John Nash and James Jesus Angleton, and today it uses the CIA, NSA and law enforcement of the United States. The MK-ULTRA and related projects which occurred shortly after the crash of an alien vessel at Roswell, NM prove beyond a reasonable doubt that our government is aware of an extraterrestrial influence over humanity.

Reinforced with timelike synchronicity•

Cases of experiencing the hidden influence of the Octopus are not limited to those with questioned sanity however, in the recent past a wave of writers who have first hand testimony related to themachinations of an alien influence with advanced technology have become prevalent in the fringe. More importantly many of these writers have been murdered with the very same technology with strokes, heart attacks, and forced suicides being highly prevalent among writers describing the Octopus. Danny Casolaro, Jim Keith, John Norseen, and Frank Olssen are just a few of those who have been "killed for their testimony." It is the deaths of these people caused by control of the sympathetic nervous system, as well as the apparent induction of insanity in other victims which proves beyond any doubt that the mechanism of action is working mind control technology.

Thousands upon thousands of knowing victims exist today and yet their testimony is completely ignored by law enforcement and the general public despite the fact that the use of the technology and the organization involved are proven by those mentioned above. They have been overtly told of the type of weapon used against them, yet their cries fall on deaf ears almost universally.

The claims of victims like Nash, Angleton, Casolaro, and Matthews all contain a significant number of commonalities and facts which are later verified. The underlying theme however is of an alien or foreign influence which controls a large group of humans of all walks of life with the intention of subverting the government and our societal way of life. There is no logic in believing complaints of a conspiracy to infiltrate the government are the result of a delusion, rather than the result of first hand experience and witnessing of exactly what they described. A number of the claims of these victims are verified later including Nash, Angleton, and Casolaro — yet still no action is taken.

It's time to wake up and take notice, we are being attacked, and we don't even know it. The perception of insanity has been used to hide the existence of an ongoing invasion of a hidden influence in our society it must not be ignored any longer.
